Feb. 24, 1948—It is a joy to see "a perfect thing" and a job done as efficiently as you have accomplished in the shipment of the African Violets. Needless to assure that the three plants and Afri-Gro came safely and are beautiful. Thank you. Mrs. M., Lewisburg, Tenn.

Mar. 30, 1948—To be truthfully honest, I was amazed, I've never seen anything so delicately wrapped with such care and caution, it was perfectly beautiful. Thank you very much for the great care given my plant. I take great pride in all my plants. Miss R., St. Louis, Mo.

April 15, 1948—Purple Prince and Mentor Boy arrived in good condition yesterday. The soil was still moist. Mrs. B., Bakersfield, Cal.

May 16, 1948—Of course, they arrived in perfect condition, I have never received a plant order so beautifully packed. It was a pleasure to open it. When I took out the plant it was as fresh as if I had carried it from the next room. Certainly it would be my own fault if I didn't get excellent results with it. Mrs. A., Issaquah, Washington.

June 15, 1948—You sent me a package of Afri-Gro with which I have transplanted Violets and Philodendron. Plants are growing beautifully and it's a pleasure to tell you how well satisfied I am. Miss S., Cleveland Hgts., Ohio.

Feb. 19, 1949—One cannot describe this perfect way of packing such delicate plants, in one word. I think they would stand most any freeze and come through in perfect condition. Yours respectfully, Mrs. B. B. L., Dallas, Pa.

Dear Flower Lover:

As we mentioned before we have discarded the idea of printing an elaborate Catalog, having art work, cuts, engraving, etc. done is very expensive and we feel not necessary. The main thing you, the customer is interested in is knowing the varieties and prices and service rendered. We have reduced substantially all our prices without sparing quality, packing or service, this is accomplished by cutting down our overhead wherever possible, hence no fancy catalog, that is a burden which must be added to the cost of plants.

We pledge ourselves to continue the same high class service, merchandise and packing which our many satisfied customers have attested to by their kind, unsolicited letters. We shall use every means available to keep overhead down and quality up.

Yours for finer African Violets,
Alex. H. Frentzen.
